GETINGE

Perioperative leaders are expected to spearhead innovation – forging clinical, operational, and financial solutions. Gain the knowledge and tools to be an effective leader in both the OR and the boardroom.

The Leadership Summit at AORN Global Surgical Conference & Expo is a four-day seminar where you can:

- Focus on the management and business side of perioperative nursing
- Network with leaders from the nation's top healthcare systems
- Hear from industry experts on critical issues facing the surgical suite
- Earn your Certificate in Surgical Services Financial Management

New in 2019!

Emerging Leader and Experienced Executive Tracks

90% of Leadership Summit attendees identified and/or implemented new practices just 90 days after last year's event.

The 2019 program offers two tracks. Choose from separate breakout sessions that focus on developing management skills for emerging perioperative leaders or strategies for experienced executives to address their top challenges.

"Great opportunity to discuss executive challenges among colleagues." - Past Summit Attendee

Connect with Other Perioperative Leaders

When we take time to learn from each other and work in harmony, we can achieve the highest quality patient care. Connect with perioperative leaders from around the world to share challenges and get new ideas.

Leadership Summit Lounge

Continue your conversations in the exclusive Leadership Summit lounge, sponsored by Johnson & Johnson Medical Devices Companies. Network between sessions, enjoy light refreshments, and discuss solutions to challenges facing ORs today.

Q&A with the Poster Authors

See how your peers are changing perioperative practice. Explore hundreds of poster presentations online and in-person. Participate in our expanded meet and greet with the poster authors to learn first-hand about their research and work.

Connect Virtually

Start networking months in advance through our NEW conference app. Participate in discussions, exchange virtual business cards, and send direct messages to other attendees and exhibitors.

How the Leadership Summit is Designed

- Four-day event held during AORN Global Surgical Conference & Expo
- Exclusive education sessions, breakfast and lunch symposiums, and networking opportunities for perioperative leaders
- Plus, entry to all Global Surgical Conference & Expo education sessions and activities held before, during, and after the Leadership Summit

Succession Planning?

Attend the Leadership Summit with your mentee — this event is designed for experienced executives and new nurse leaders to experience together. Energize and educate your successors by exposing them to robust discussions on the future of healthcare.

Certificate Program: Surgical Services Financial Management Intensive

with Pamela S. Hunt, MSN, RN

Nurse leaders control the largest part of a hospital labor budget, and in some cases the largest part of the overall budget. Overseeing this responsibility can mean the difference between an organization's financial stability and turmoil. This full-day program will provide education on key financial concepts necessary for effectively managing the financial performance of perioperative services. Content of the program includes an in-depth analysis of staffing in the perioperative areas, including productivity calculations and possible reasons for not meeting targets, understanding of organizational measurements for financial success and how the perioperative leader impacts these measurements, a deeper understanding of revenue and expense variances, operational budgets, capital equipment justifications, and how to develop a return of investment break even analysis.

Signup required at time of registration. Capacity limited.

No additional fee.

If not attending the Certificate Program in Surgical Services Financial Management, Leadership Summit attendees are welcome to attend Global Surgical Conference & Expo activities held on April 10.

7:00am-12:00pm	Poster Displays

Expo Opening Reception

Sunday, April 7 | 4:00pm-6:00pm

Mix and mingle with exhibitors during the opening celebration of the exhibit hall, while enjoying hors d'oeuvres and drinks in a festive environment.

Simulation Training

Participate in hands-on training on real-world scenarios. These lively activities will be located in the exhibit hall on Monday and Tuesday.

Ask the Guidelines Authors

Meet the authors of AORN's Guidelines for Perioperative Practice and get a chance to ask them questions about their latest research and implementation tools. The authors will be presenting at the AORN Central booth.

In-booth Education

Obtain additional contact hours while exploring the trade show. Stay-and-listen workshops and take-away study guides will be offered at participating exhibitor booths.

Enhance Your Conference Experience with Global Surgical Conference & Expo Programs

Leadership Summit attendees also have full access to Global Surgical Conference & Expo. Here are a few sessions and activities you and your team won't want to miss.

Global Research & Practice Studies

Hear how researchers and study investigators from around the globe manage practice issues.

Rapid Fire

Hear different perspectives from multiple speakers on the same topic in these fast-paced sessions. Speakers will be given a predetermined number of minutes to discuss the topic and five minutes for follow-up questions before moving on to the next presenter.

Interactive Buzz Sessions

Expert facilitators will begin these sessions by posing questions and scenarios to audience members. You'll be asked to discuss and identify solutions. This fun format will be a great way to meet other attendees who are experiencing similar practice issues.

Posters

Earn contact hours by viewing poster displays at the conference or online after you return home.

New Expo Schedule in 2019!

Opening Ceremony and keynote will be on Saturday afternoon.

Explore The Music City

Nashville is a creative melting pot that seamlessly stirs together rock, country, bluegrass, and jazz. Create an unforgettable week with world-class art, cuisine, unique shopping and outdoor activities.
