SAFE SURGERY TOGETHER

You know us for our annual conferences — AORN Global Surgical Conference & Expo and OR Excellence. But AORN also provides numerous opportunities to connect with the largest database of perioperative nurses in the U.S. to support your sales, education programs, and product development.

AORN's evidence-based Guidelines for Perioperative Practice define the standards that help keep healthcare workers and surgical patients safe. Delivering on this mission is possible through collaboration with healthcare providers, health systems, and the generous support from industry partners. This prospectus provides an overview of the opportunities to connect with the broad perioperative profession, including more than 40,000 AORN members.

Why partner with AORN?

Perioperative nurses are key decision-makers and influencers on product purchasing in their OR suites.

- Leverage AORN expertise to understand how your products or services align with AORN Guidelines for Perioperative Practice for improved differentiation to your customers.
- Access a diverse population of perioperative professionals eager to offer insights and feedback vital to product development and testing.
- Build brand awareness of your products or services among key OR decision-makers and influencers.

AORN includes a family of organizations dedicated to supporting nurses and surgical teams in providing evidence-based, quality care.

AORN: Founded in 1949, AORN (Association of periOperative Registered Nurses) unites and empowers surgical nurses, healthcare organizations, and industry to define standardized practice for perioperative professionals.

AORN Foundation: The AORN Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization and is the philanthropic arm of AORN. The generosity of individuals and corporate sponsors enables the Foundation to fund research, award academic scholarships, professional development grants, and patient safety resources such as tool kits, webinars, and seminar series.

Pfiedler Education: Pfiedler Education is a wholly-owned subsidiary of AORN offering accredited continuing education that provides medical device companies the opportunity to bring education to nurses and allied health professionals.

AORN Syntegrity®: Syntegrity® is a subsidiary of AORN and is the only EHR nursing content built by perioperative clinicians based on the most current Guidelines for Perioperative Practice. Evidence-based practices help prevent surgical risks and support more efficient processes, improve care protocols and outcomes, and lower costs.

Outpatient Surgery Magazine and OR Excellence: Outpatient Surgery Magazine is a division of AORN and is the leading voice in ambulatory surgery. Its trade show, OR Excellence, provides expertise and resources to perioperative professionals and administrators who work in surgical settings.

SUPPORT NURSING EDUCATION

Center for Nursing Leadership

AORN's Center for Nursing Leadership is focused on supporting nurse leaders for continued professional development in managing the business challenges of perioperative services.

Virtual Nurse Leadership Seminar

In this unique, half-day, live, virtual seminar, perioperative nurse leaders from around the country gather to discuss the challenges that face them everyday. Focusing on leadership strategies and practical solutions, the decision-maker attendees of this seminar participate in interactive breakout rooms with industry sponsors who showcase the relevance and utility of their products and services as solutions for perioperative teams. The Nurse Leadership Seminar is funded through grants from the AORN Foundation.

Leadership Summit

Incorporated into the annual AORN Global Surgical Conference & Expo, this program is designed to meet the educational needs of nurse leaders and facility executives, as well as emerging leaders, through two distinct learning tracks. This is an exceptional opportunity for partners to gain exposure to this exclusive group of Expo attendees.

Virtual Guideline Workshops

Guideline Workshops are an engaging, instructional, and interactive workshop for perioperative nurse leaders and their teams to understand and effectively put evidence-based recommendations into everyday practice. This half-day, live, virtual event is led by authors of AORN's Guidelines for Perioperative Practice and includes product demos guided by sponsors. Guideline Workshops are funded through grants from the AORN Foundation.

Pfiedler Education

Pfiedler Education (formerly known as Pfiedler Enterprises) has been in the business of developing medical continuing education programs for over 40 years with accreditation for many types of healthcare professionals including nurses, dietitians, respiratory therapists and others.

Organizations have a unique opportunity with Pfiedler to leverage a third-party education provider to design unbiased, accredited education programs including webinars, interactive online programs, and live presentations. Email sales@Pfiedler.com for more information.

AORN'S SEAL OF RECOGNITION PROGRAM

Distinguish Your Education and Training Content

AORN's Seal of Recognition program helps perioperative nurses and their colleagues select the highest quality training, education, and in-service programs that are deemed consistent with the AORN Guidelines for Perioperative Practice.

When perioperative professionals see the seal, they can be confident that AORN has reviewed the content for quality and alignment with the guidelines.

See what it takes to earn the seal. Contact the Industry sales team.

ALIGN YOUR COMPANY WITH AORN'S GUIDELINES FOR PERIOPERATIVE PRACTICE

Industry partners can provide funding for AORN member guideline resources. The Guidelines for Perioperative Practice cover core foundational practices as well as emerging topics critical to surgical patient and worker safety. These include evidence-based recommendations in 5 key topics areas:

- Aseptic Practice
- Patient & Worker Safety
- Patient Care
- Equipment & Product Safety
- Sterilization & Disinfection

AORN will work with your organization to develop a customized program that aligns your organization with a perioperative guideline topic, reinforcing your support of evidence-based practices.

Industry support options can be combined across a number of resources: Guideline Essentials, Posters, Key Takeaways, and Webinars.

Guideline Reprints

Corporate partners can request a guideline reprint that includes a custom cover with your company logo. This is an excellent opportunity to expand your influence with perioperative leaders.

Partnerships with the AORN Foundation on these programs provide an opportunity to demonstrate your commitment to perioperative nurses and the critical role they play in patient and workplace safety, while elevating your brand through philanthropic support.

Live Education Events

Face-to-face and virtual education programs funded through the AORN Foundation provide a combination of classroom and hands-on learning for select topic areas focused on improving patient and worker safety.

Scholarships & Professional Development Grants

Professional Development Grants and Academic Scholarships are offered through the AORN Foundation to help individual nurses advance and maintain the unique knowledge, competencies and technical skills required in the perioperative profession to ensure safe and high-quality care.

Research Projects

The AORN Foundation provides joint funding to encourage qualified nurses to conduct research related to perioperative nursing practice and contribute to the development of perioperative nursing science.

OR EXCELLENCE 2021

We are making plans to meet together again face-to-face in 2021. Check back regularly for updates about event details. Visit OREXCELLENCE.COM

SAFE SURGERY TOGETHER.

As the world's largest professional association for perioperative nurses – representing the interests of more than 200,000 perioperative nurses including our more than 40,000 members – AORN's Guidelines for Perioperative Practice, continuing education, and clinical practice resources lead to optimal outcomes in care.

Education and Clinical Practice Support

Perioperative professionals rely on AORN resources for education and professional development based on the evidence-based and peer-reviewed Guidelines for Perioperative Practice. The guidelines are accepted into the ECRI Guidelines Trust and are referenced by the Joint Commission, CMS and other regulatory agencies. Learn more about the guidelines on our website: AORN.org.

Advocacy

AORN monitors nursing and healthcare laws and regulations through our National Legislative Forum and state legislative coordinators, and coordinates and engages AORN members who are active grassroots advocates to participate in the legislative and regulatory processes. Our clinical and administrative staff serve on the committees and boards of approximately 30 professional associations to protect and improve safe perioperative practices.

Philanthropy

The AORN Foundation is the philanthropic arm of AORN, and is a 501(c)(3) charitable foundation. We exist to fulfill the mission of empowering perioperative nurses in advancing patient and workplace safety through education and research.
